Enclosed please find the covering letter and the supporting documents, which I mailed to you via post on February 4, 2011 requesting again AVICENNA, to list our International University School of Medicine (IUSOM) Foundation, in its International Directory of Medical Schools.

To date, I have not heard further news about IUSOM Application. I would appreciate it if you could send us some update on our application.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me.
